

UB LAW AND POLITICAL SCIENCE QUARTERLY

Vol. 2, N° 1,
October 2022

SDG17: partnering to reduce inequalities, attain peace, justice and build strong institutions in Cameroon Atangcho N. Akonumbo, Albert Mbiatem and Emile Sunjo	9
Les singularités juridiques de la liquidation amiable de droit commun des sociétés commerciales en droit OHADA Pierre Etienne Kenfack	31
Political Economy of Regional Security in Central Africa Kiven James Kewir and Ekang Adventus Nzikie	49
Protection of refugees in Cameroon: legal and human rights challenges Patience Sone and Mbianyor Arrey J.	67
La différence juridique entre réfugiés et déplacés internes sous le prisme du droit international en situation de conflit armé Thomas Ojong	85
Land scarcity, ethnic rivalry and conflict between the Wimbun and Mbororo of Donga-Mantung, Cameroon Emile Sunjo and Nyadi Francios Ndzi	95
Indigenous Approaches to Conflict Resolution in Contemporary African Societies Fabrice Tambe Endoh	113
The death of George Floyd beyond America: Rethinking America's moral legitimacy to lead the world Gabsa Wilfred Nyongbet and Suh I Fru Norbert	131
Cameroon's compliance with the international standard for combating the financing of terrorism: the road not taken Patience Sone and Sona Mukete Gerald	155
The Law on Sustainable Usufructuary on Forest Resources with the Indigenous People of Cameroon Nkweche Vitalis Mombeh	175
Government appropriation of crisis communication frames in health pandemics: the case of the COVID-19 pandemic in Cameroon Ndang Godiva Fuai and Kingsley Lyonga Ngange	201

ISBN : 978-2-14-031406-3
23,50 €

Vol. 2, N° 1,
October 2022

University of Buea

UB LAW AND POLITICAL SCIENCE QUARTERLY

UB LAW AND POLITICAL SCIENCE QUARTERLY

University of Buea

Vol. 2, N° 1, October 2022